VIOLA DANA IN HOME STUFF

If you have a heart, you'll like it. If you haven't, it'll make you wish you had. Story by Frank Dacey and Agnes Johnson. YOUTH IS THE AGE OF ROMANCE

When he sulks because she walked with Jim Haskins to get the mail at the postoffice. When she flares up and pouts because he said Nelly Wright's hair was mighty pretty. Silly! Well, perhaps. But they're young, remember. As young as Bob Deep; and Madge Joy, the girl played by Viola Dana.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Informal Party

Miss Bessie Miller entertained informally about forty guests Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Carrie Henry and Mrs. L. B. Weisenburgh, who left Friday to spend the winter in Gulfport, Mississippi. The house was beautifully decorated and a spirit of true hospitality reigned supreme as always in this charming home. A most delicious lunch was enjoyed and assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. W. H. Grider, Mrs. J. G. Bosley, Mrs. S. B. Hume, Mrs. B. L. Middleton, Miss Sallie Miller, Miss Josephine Telford and Miss Eleanor Carpenter.

Musical Tea

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Middleton, Miss Bessie Miller and Mrs. J. G. Bosley motored to Winchester this week and were guests at a musical tea to which Miss Mary Bell Field Miller was host. The story of "Enoch Arden" was recited by Mrs. Campbell, the music by Richard Straus, beautifully rendered by Mrs. McKinley, at the piano, made an unusual and most artistic program enjoyed by many guests from Lexington, Versailles, Paris, Frankfort, Richmond and Winchester. After the program a delicious lunch was served.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theodor's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today, and keep it in your house. See that the package bears the words, "Theodor's Black-Draught." NO. 147

BIG TERM OF U. S. COURT MONDAY

Sawyer Smith Begins His Work As New District Attorney Here—Docket and Juries

The opening of the November of Federal Court here Monday, November 14th, will mark the first appearance of Sawyer Smith of Barboursville, as U. S. District Attorney. Mr. Smith was recently appointed by President Harding to succeed Thomas H. Slatery, who held the office under President Wilson's administration. Mr. Smith has many friends here and will receive a cordial welcome when he comes to Richmond.

Deputy Clerk Miss Sara Monday has the docket in fine shape for Judge Cochran to open court. There are about 35 new criminal cases on the docket, including the sensational car robbery cases from near King's Mountain in Lincoln county, wherein it is alleged that a gang of men stole from freight cars and sold the stolen goods to country merchants. There are about 20 criminal cases left over from the April term. As usual, a large part of the docket is made up of whiskey cases, moonshining and bootlegging.

The civil calendar and list of grand and petit jurors is as follows:

Stories of Great Scouts

By Elmo Scott Watson

© Western Newspaper Union.
DANIEL BOONE, THE GREAT KENTUCKIAN

Daniel Boone was the son of Quaker parents who lived in Pennsylvania. Although the principal doctrine in the Quaker creed is that man must not kill, Daniel departed from the faith of his fathers early and he became one of the greatest Indian fighters in American history.

When Boone was eighteen his parents moved to North Carolina and in the Yadkin valley of that state, young Boone became an expert woodsman and hunter. Attracted by the tales of a hunter who had crossed the Appalachians into the unknown Kentucky country, Boone visited the Blue Grass state several times until he finally decided to make that country his home. In 1775 he established Boonesborough, the first outpost of civilization in the "Dark and Bloody Ground," as Kentucky was called because it was a battleground for many tribes of Indians.

Boone's adventures with the Indians in his new home were innumerable. In 1778 he was captured by the Shawnees, who admired the scout's courage so much that he was not put to death. Instead Chief Black Fish adopted him, giving him the name of Big Turtle, rather an inappropriate title for a man so active. Boone pretended to be well pleased with his captivity and after several months the watchfulness of the savages relaxed. Then he made his escape.

Several years later this same band of Shawnees came to Boonesborough to kidnap their former captive. They found Boone in a little shanty used for drying tobacco.

"Now Boone, we got you," said the Indians. "You no get away this time." "Yes, you have me but I am glad to go with you," replied the scout, "but I want my friends to have some of this tobacco."

He gathered up a number of the driest leaves, and, unseen by the Indians, crushed them in his hands. Before they could move, he threw the powdered tobacco into their eyes. As the blinded savages rolled on the floor howling and digging at their eyes, the former "Big Turtle" showed unexpected speed and was far up the trail to the fort before they could pursue him.

In his later years Boone was cheated out of the rich Kentucky lands he had fought so hard to win and he migrated to Missouri, becoming a farmer once more. He died there in 1820 at the age of eighty-six. A quarter of a century later Kentucky paid him belated honor by removing his body to the capital of the state and today Daniel Boone sleeps in the land where he won fame as a pioneer and scout.

ROWLETT FARM SELLS AT $176.30

The Freeman Realty Company of this city conducted another splendid real estate sale Thursday when they sold for L. C. Rowlett his farm of 60 acres on Bogg Lane. J. Morgan Evans, was the purchaser, after spirited bidding, at $176.30 an acre. The tract is a dandy one, but only has a barn for improvements. It is very conveniently located. Long Tom Chenault cried the sale in his usual finished and effective style, and it was one of the very best land sales in this section this year.

SYMPTOMS WOMEN DREAD

Mrs. Wilson's Letter Should Be Read by All Women

Clearfield, Pa.—"After my last child was born last September I was unable to do all of my own work. I had severe pains in my left side every month and had fever and sick dizzy spells and such pains during my periods, which lasted two weeks. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing others so much good and thought I would give it a trial. I have been very glad that I did, for now I feel much stronger and do all of my work. I tell my friends when they ask me what helped me, and they think it must be a grand medicine. And it is. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. HARRY A. WILSON, E. F. D. 5, Clearfield, Pa.

The experience and testimony of such women as Mrs. Wilson prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct such troubles by removing the cause and restoring the system to a healthy normal condition. When such symptoms develop as backaches, bearing-down pains, displacements, nervousness and "the blues," women cannot act too promptly in getting Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she values her future comfort and happiness.
